

News from Double Ewe

December 11, 2006

Hi folks!

Well, we're deep into the Holiday crazies, but I hope you all are able to find some quiet time to enjoy this season.

Classes!

I have great news: The class schedule is ready! We're offering the following classes in January & February:

- Beginning Knitting
- Knitting: The Next Steps
- Knitter's Choice
- Cables!
- Mom (or Dad) & Me: Beginning Knitting
- Lace – Planned Holes
- Cute Ruffle Bag
- Felted Heart Dish & Coasters
- Socks on Two Circulars
- Mittens
- Hats That Fit
- Top Down Cardigan
- Beginning Crochet

Stop by the shop for a class list with all the details, or you can see it on our website – www.double-ewe-yarn.com - go to the Calendar Page.

New Stuff

We've added some new items to the shop since our last newsletter:

- Lorna's Laces Shepherd Sock, Sport & Worsted, and Swirl DK
- Misty Baby Alpaca – worsted weight
- Chunky Baby Alpaca – expanded color selection
- Trekking XXL Sock Yarn
- HiyaHiya Stainless Steel Circular Needles

Have you seen these? They're my new favorite circular needle – very flexible cables, very smooth joins, just the right amount of slickness...and a very reasonable price: either $7.50 or $9.00, depending on the size. Stop in and check them out! They're a great alternative to some of the more expensive needles out there.

- Lamb's Pride Bulky – expanded color selection. This yarn is far more popular than I anticipated, and I've added six more colors to my selection.

Knittin' with Ewe

Don't forget, we have open knitting on Tuesdays! Come knit or crochet with us – bring your friends, make new ones.

When: Tuesday evenings, 6:30 – 9:00 pm.

I want to thank you all again, and please let me know if you have any comments or suggestions. And, as always, if you ever need help figuring out a pattern or learning a new technique, feel free to stop in or call, and I'd love to help you figure it out.

Have a blessed holiday season!
