Just a quick newsletter this month! I've been furiously working on the new class schedule, and it's finally ready! Check it out – maybe something will inspire you!

Open Knitting — Tuesday evenings AND Friday afternoons!

Our Tuesday night open knitting has been such fun! I've decided add another time during the day and see if folks are interested. Come knit with us on Friday afternoons, anytime between 1:30 – 4:30. It's a great way to wind down at the end of the week. Stop in, have some tea, and knit. If you work on Fridays, go ahead...skip out of work for the afternoon. You have my permission.

New Stuff!

- The new sock yarn from Crystal Palace arrived today! It's called Panda Cotton, and it's made of 55% bamboo, 24% cotton, and 21% elastic nylon. I've got an assortment of all 24 colors.
- There were some delays with the Malabrigo Merino Chunky, but I'm told it finally shipped yesterday, so it should be here soon. We're also getting a lot of the Merino Worsted with quite a few new colors – my Malabrigo shelves will be full again!
- On Tuesday, we'll have a couple new (to us) yarns from Southwest Trading Company: Karaoke – a worsted weight soysilk/wool blend that has gorgeous colorways, it felts beautifully, plus it's very soft to the skin. In addition to that, our Tofutsies will be here – it's a great yarn for socks that is Superwash wool, soysilk, cotton & chitlin blend. Machine washable, beautiful colors. And SWTC has a lot of free patterns available for their yarns – I'll have some printed and ready to go next week!
